3. Each colonist will be given nine acres of wet land and five acres of dry land on lease for a period of six years, the amount of lease being nominal and equal to the assessment on the land. At the end of six years the land allotted to each colonist will be offered to him for purchase at the present market value, the price being received in 10 annual instalments from the date of sale.

4. Government will advance to each colonist a sum of Rs. 1,250 for the purchase of bullocks, implements and for cultivation expenses. The advance will carry no interest for the first four years and will bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum thereafter. The balance of advance after adjustment of the deposit (if any) will be recovered in five annual instalments after the fourth year.

5. Each colonist should furnish a security to cover the amount advanced to him. If the colonists are unable to offer cash security, security property of double the value, or Mysore Government security of the same value or two eligible personal securities should be furnished by them for advance granted to them.

6. The Agricultural Department will render all necessary help and guidance to the colonists for profitable forming.

Application forms may be had from the Office of the Deputy Director of Agriculture, Bangalore and they should be filled up and submitted, so as to reach this office on or before 4th September 1947.
